

NaDEET is recruiting a

Senior Environmental Educator at NaDEET Centre on NamibRand Nature Reserve

The position is based at NaDEET Centre in the Hardap Region located 150 km from Maltahöhe.

Main Responsibilities

- Teaching our week-long, residential sustainability programmes at NaDEET Centre to primary school, secondary school, university and adult groups
- Managing NaDEET Centre programme logistics
- Working with the NaDEET Centre team to deliver a high-quality programme
- Maintaining and updating programme activities and materials
- Sharing NaDEET's work with visitors through guided tours
- Administrative and reporting tasks related to NaDEET Centre programmes

Profile

The ideal candidate has a degree/ professional experience in Environmental Education/ Education for Sustainable Development.

Requirements:

- Excellent teaching skills and understanding of nature and the environmental crisis
- Strong computer skills (MS 365/Office)
- Proactive, detail-oriented, people skills
- Ability to work flexible hours, at times
- Clean record and good health
- Excellent verbal & written communication skills in English
- Driver's License

We Offer

A unique opportunity to work at an award-winning environmental education centre on the largest private nature reserve in Southern Africa.

- A dynamic working environment in a dedicated, sustainability-oriented team
- A wide range of responsibilities and learning opportunities
- Salary grading according to job-relevant experience
- Retirement pension plan, on-site housing and food, and transport arrangements to and from site

Apply Now

Download our application form from our website: www.nadeet.org and submit it with a CV and Cover Letter to admin@nadeet.org by 28 June 2022.